ers shall be said, and viz. ~~the~~ ~~Prayer~~ ~~shall~~ ~~be~~ ~~said~~

A Almighty God, the Sovereign Commander of all the World, in whose hand is power and might, which nothing is able to withstand; To thee alone we owe our Deliverance from those many and great Dangers wherewith we were so lately Encompassed. It is thou alone that commandest the Winds and the Seas, and they obey thee: Thou takest the crafty in their own Counsels, and turnest the wisdom of the wise into foolishness. And as if this were a small thing with thee, thou didst not only save us from our Enemies, but deliver them into our hands, and give Their Majesties fleet a most Signal and Glorious Victory over them. Blessed be God who hath not turned away our Prayers, nor his Mercy from us, notwithstanding our many and great Provocations: Therefore not unto us, O Lord, not unto us, but unto thy Name be the Glory. And let this be the blessed fruit of all thy wonderful Mercies, that we may turn every one from the evil of his way, and may live as a People that have been, in so many remarkable Instances, the peculiar and visible care of thy Providence: That thou mayest still delight to do us good, and our Arms by Sea and Land may be successful to the Establishing of Truth and Peace in these and the Neighbouring Nations, to the Glory of thy great Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord Amen.

Great and glorious Lord God, the just and wise Governour of the World, who lovest righteousness and hatest unrighteousness: We Adore that merciful and wonderful Providence which hath given so remarkable a Check to the Pride and Power of the Enemy, by the great Success of Their Majesties Fleet in this last Summers Expedition. It is thou O Lord that hast been our Defence and Refuge in the Day of our Trouble: Thou hast shewn us wonderful things in thy righteousness, O God of our Salvation, thou that art the hope of all the ends of the Earth, and of them that remain in the wide Sea. To thee alone we ascribe the Glory of all our Deli-verances: For it was not our own arm that saved us, but thy right hand, and thine Arm, and the light of thy Countenance, because thou hadst a favour unto us: Unto thee therefore, O God, do we give thanks, unto thee do we give thanks, who hast wrought this mighty salvation for us: Stablish, O God, that which thou hast wrought for us: And give us, we beseech thee, such a dutiful and deep sense of thy goodness to us, that we may live as becomes a People saved by the Lord Banish, we pray thee, from among us all Infidelity and Profaneness; purge us from all our abominations; take away all hatred and Dissenti-ons: And endue us with a Spirit of true Piety and holiness, of Love and Goodness, of Unity and Concord: that the Blessings of Peace together with

With the purity of Religion may be preserved to us, and continued to our posterity; for the Merits of Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

C The Collect for Peace.

O God, who art the Author of Peace, and lover of Concord, in knowledge of whom standeth our eternal life, whose Service is perfect freedom; Defend us thy humble Servants in all Assaults of our Enemies, that we surely trusting in thy Defence, may not fear the power of any Adversaries, through the might of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

C The Collect for Grace.

O Lord our heavenly Father, Almighty and everlasting God, who hast safely brought us to the beginning of this day; defend us all the same with thy mighty power, and grant that this day we fall into no sin, neither run into any kind of danger; but that all our doings may be ordered by thy governance, to do always that is righteous in thy sight, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

roy and thank'giving.

Let us pray.

O God merciful Father, that despisest not the sighing of a contrite heart, nor the desire of such as be sorrowful; mercifully assist our prayers that we make before thee, in all our troubles and adversities, whensoever they oppress us; and graciously hear us, that those evils which the craft and subtilty of the devil or man worketh against us be brought to naught; and by the providence of thy goodness they may be dispersed, that we thy servants, being hurt by no persecutions, may evermore give thanks unto thee in thy holy Church, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

In the end of the Litany, after the Collect [We humbly beseech thee, O Father, &c.] shall be said this which followeth.

A mighty and most gracious God, who hast been our Deliverer in the Day of our Distress, and hast raised up thy Servant King WILLIAM to be the happy Instrument of our Deliverance: We praise thy holy Name that hast so wonderfully preserved him from the great dangers to which he hath been so often exposed: More especially, we adore thy great goodness to him in the discovery and disappointment of that bloody and barbarous Attempt design'd upon his Sacred Person by his cruel and implacable Enemies. We humbly beseech thee still to continue him under the merciful care and protection of thy good Providence, and to bless him with good Success: And likewise to give us grace, in a thankful sense of thy great goodness, to live in obedience to thee, and in subjection to Their Majesties, whom we beseech thee long to preserve and continue to us, for thy mercies sake in Jesus Christ our blessed Lord and Saviour. Amen.

Immediately before the Prayer of St. Chrysostom, use the Collect of Thanksgiving, (for peace and deliverance from our Enemies.)

A mighty God, who art a strong Tower of Defence unto thy Servants against the face of their Enemies; We yield thee Praise and Thanksgiving for our Deliverance from those great and apparent Dangers wherewith we were compassed. We acknowledge it thy goodness, that we were not delivered over as a Prey unto them; beseeching thee still to continue such thy Mercies towards us, that all the World may know that thou art our Saviour and mighty Deliverer, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayer of St. Chrysostom.

A mighty God, who hast given us grace at this time with one accord, to make our common supplications unto thee, and dost promise that when two or three are gathered together in thy Name, thou wilt grant their requests; Ful-and Thankgiving.

fit now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of thy servants, as may be most expedient for them ; granting us in this world knowledg of thy truth, and in the world to come life everlasting.
Amen.

2 Cor. 13. 14.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the holy Ghost be with us all evermore. Amen.

In the Communion Service, between the Commandments and the Epistle, shall this Collect be used, instead of the Collect for the King and Queen; and of the Collect for the day.

O Most gracious God, who of thy infinite goodness hast preserved our Sovereign Lord King WILLIAM from the treacherous practices of wicked and blood-thirsty men, and from the manifold Dangers to which his Royal Person hath been exposed for the Publike Good during his late expedition & hast brought him back to us in safety : We beseech thee to fill our hearts with unfeigned thankfulness to thee for so great Blessings ; & still to continue their Majesties under the watchful care of thy Providence ; to protect their Sacred Persons from all secret Attempts and open Violence, that no Weapon, no Design formed against them may prosper : And to

to make them the happy Instruments of establishing that great Deliverance which thy Providence by them hath wrought for us in so wonderful a manner, that all the world may see that it is thy hand, and that thou, Lord, hast done it: Which we humbly beg for thy mercy sake in Jesus Christ our Blessed Saviour and Redeemer. Amen.

¶ Then shall follow the Epistle. Heb. XI.

BY faith Moses when he was born, was hid three months of his Parents, because they saw he was a proper child; and they were not afraid of the Kings Commandment. By faith Moses, when he was come to years, refused to be called the Son of Pharaohs daughter; chusing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, then to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season; esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches then the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect unto the recompence of the reward. By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured as seeing him who is invisible. Through faith he kept the passover, and the sprinkling of blood, lest he that destroyed the first born, should touch them. By faith they passed through the Red sea, as by dry land: which the Egyptians assaying to do, were drowned. By faith the walls of Jerico fell down, after they were con-

passed about seven days. By faith the harlot Rahab perished not with them that believed not, when she had received the spies with peace. And what shall I more say? for the time would fail me to tell of Geleon, and of Barak, and of Sampson, and of Jephtha of David also and Samuel. and of the prophets: Who through faith subdued Kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of Lions, quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, waxed Valiant in fight, turned to flight the Armies of the Aliens.

¶ The Gospel, St. Matth. 5. verse 43. to the end.

YE have heard that it hath been said, thou shalt love thy neighbour, and hate thine enemy: But I say unto you Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you: That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven, for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the the unjust. For if ye love them which love you; what reward have ye? do not even the publicans the same? And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more then others? do not even the publicans so? be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect.

C Then the Nicene Creed. After that the Sermon.

C After the Prayer [For the whole State of Christs Church &c.] this Collect shall be used.

Most Glorious Lord God, whose Throne is in the Heavens, and whose Kingdom ruleth over all; Who dost whatsoever pleaseth thee, in Heaven, and in Earth, and in the Sea: Thou, Lord, hast been our Refuge from one Generation to another: Our Fathers trusted in thee, & thou didst deliver them; they called upon thee, and were not confounded: We bless thy Name that thou hast also heard the voice of our humble petitions, which we did put up to thee in the day of our Distress; and hast not only kept us in peace at home, and graciously preserved us from the malicious Designs of our Enemies abroad, and from that Destruction which they had prepared for us; but hast likewise been pleased to bless their Majesties Fleet with a most wonderful Success, and hast triumphed gloriously over the powerful Enemy: What shall we render unto thee, O Lord, for all these benefits? We will love thee, O Lord who hath inclined his ear unto us, and call upon him as long as we live: Unto thee, O God, will we pay our vows, unto thee will we give thanks. And grant, we beseech thee, being delivered from the hands of our Enemies, we may serve thee without fear, in holiness and righteousness before thee all the days of our lives: That thou who hast hitherto been our helper and Deliverer, mayest be pleased to establish truth and Peace in the midst of us to the glory of thy great Name, the comfort and support of the Reformed Churches abroad, the propagation of the Gospel, and the Enlargement of the Kingdom of thy dear Son: Which we beseech thee to hasten, that all Nations may fall down and worship before thee, saying, Blessing, and Glory, and Wisdom, and Honour, and Power be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for all Mankind, especially for the Reformed Churches.

Most gracious and merciful God, who art the Saviour of all Men, especially of those that believe; and hast commanded us to make prayers and intercessions for all men, desiring that all may be saved, and come to the knowledge of the Truth; We humbly beseech thee to extend thy Mercy and Compassion to all Mankind: more particularly to the Reformed Churches abroad; and especially to those who are under Persecution for Truth and Rightteousness teousness sake. Relieve them according to their several necessities; be a shelter and defence to them from the fury of the Oppressour: Let the sighing of the Prisoners come before thee, and according to the greatness of thy power preserve them that are appointed to die: Let not the poor always be forgotten; let not the patient abiding of the meek perish for ever. Visit in Mercy them that are banished for the Testimony of thy Truth.

Gather thy dispersed together, and restore the outcasts of thy People; and in thy good time bring them home to worship thee in their own Land.
And whatsoever they have lost for thy sake, return it to them, according to thy gracious promise, in the manifold Blessings of this and a better Life: Deliver Israel, O God, out of all his Troubles. And we beseech thee to enlighten all those who are in Darknes and Errour, and to give them Repentance to the acknowledgment of the Truth: That all the ends of the Earth may remember themselves and be turned unto the Lord: And we may all become one flock under the great Shepherd and Bishop of our Souls, Jesus Christ, our Blessed Saviour and Redeemer. Amen.
